2011 AAWL Holiday Brunch & Sponsorship Brochure

The Mission of AAWL

- To further the interests of women lawyers and their service to the legal profession; to advance the administration of justice according to law; to aid the courts in carrying on the administration of justice;
- To foster public service and high standards of conduct; to maintain, on the part of those engaged in the practice of law, high standards of integrity, learning and competence;
- To encourage collegiality among women lawyers;
- To provide a forum for the discussion of subjects pertaining to the practice of law and related subjects;
- To carry on a program of continuing legal education;
- To improve the judicial and legal process and the science of jurisprudence;
- To encourage practices that would advance and improve the honor and dignity of the legal professional and to encourage the legal profession and its individual members to perform and to discharge more effectually their responsibilities in the public interest

AAWL is committed to ensuring women have access to a legal education. AAWL offers scholarships to deserving women as well as ongoing support during and after their graduation.

Acting as a sounding board for recipients, AAWL mentors meet regularly to discuss the goals, progress and professional development of the recipients.

AAWL provides both merit and need based scholarships, as well as the resources and opportunities their scholarship recipients need.

These scholarships are funded through sponsorships and the proceeds from the Annual AAWL Holiday Brunch and Auction.

2011 Sponsorship Opportunities

Honorary Endowment Sponsorship I $10,000 or Honorary Endowment Sponsorship II $5,000

This sponsorship level represents the average cost of tuition for one semester ($5,000) or one year ($10,000) of full-time law school for a woman attending one of the Arkansas law schools. Each year AAWL raises funds to support their scholarship program, which in turn provides scholarships based on merit and need to young women studying law in the State of Arkansas. AAWL Board members interview prospective recipients to determine which candidates would most benefit from the scholarship.

As an Honorary Endowment Sponsor, your donation will assist AAWL with providing the financial resources for young women to succeed during law school. Last year, AAWL was able to issue scholarships totaling $10,000 to deserving law students. I hope you will join AAWL in this effort by making a tax-deductible contribution to the AAWL Scholarship Fund.

An Honorary Endowment Sponsor will receive the following benefits:

- An Honorary Endowment Scholarship named in honor of the Honorary Endowment Sponsor
- Special Recognition at the 2011 AAWL Scholarship Awards Ceremony
